

I am dismayed to find out about the proposed LPFM, which could affect my favorite FM station, K-LOVE.

As a stay at home mother of three, I am in my car frequently and it is difficult to find family friendly programming that my children can hear. K-LOVE is the only station I know that offers that.

Our community has very few positive and uplifting programming options and I implore you not to take that away.

Thank you.